IMPERFECT ZEN

This trend is all about subtle rough structures and natural elements. Asymmetry, rawness, simplicity and natural imperfection of the materials create a pure and balanced whole. Go for a mix of untreated wood and other tactile materials in combination with a light colour palette.

RUSTIC CHIC

Deep-grained wood, leather, metal and marble create a rustic chic atmosphere, not only in look, but also in feel. Marked by an unprecedented level of realism, the texture and structure of the floors breathe authenticity. The result is a space where luxurious, classical and rustic elements meet.

CONTRAST

Radiating warmth and softness, pastels are here to stay. Add some power with a contrasting colour, like black or combine them with a brighter variation of the same hue. It adds a subtle colour play and originality.
